REFERENCES: None		DATE ADOPTED: 7/1/06 DATE REVIEWED:

STANDARD: Written policy, procedure, and practice permit when the parents are unavailable or refuse to sign, the Community Supervision Agency Director or designee to sign the following non-medical consents for court ordered custody juveniles: permission to attend camps, cultural, and recreational events; permission to participate in sports; permission to transport off campus by staff at institutional/residential centers; permission to take driver's education; release of information; application to enter special training programs; and/or permission to apply for a driver's license.

DISCUSSION: Events such as travel outside the United States, permission to make a major purchase, an application to enter Job Corps or military service, and/or permission to marry, when the parents are unavailable or refuse to consent, may be handled per local policy and procedure.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
